Dakwah Corner Bookstore Malaysia Sdn Bhd™ (DCB™) was established in 2008 as an extension of the renowned Dawah Corner bookstore located in the sacred city of Makkah Al Mukarramah.

Our mission at Dakwah Corner Bookstore Malaysia is to become a trusted source of Islamic books, multimedia, and publications, catering to both Muslims and non-Muslims across the country. We achieve this by maintaining a diverse inventory of high-quality products rooted in authentic Islamic teachings, all offered at reasonable prices and available in multiple world languages. Alhamdulillah, DCB™ ranks among the leading publishing houses, known for its valuable and highly sought-after publications that contribute significantly to the literary industry.

Our commitment extends beyond borders, as we aspire to serve humanity on a global scale. This vision includes expanding our presence by establishing bookstore chains worldwide, active participation in major book fairs, and maintaining a robust online presence through e-commerce and various social media platforms.

Since 2012, we have taken proactive steps to foster education and propagate the message of Islam by organizing a series of highly successful annual Islamic programs. These initiatives aim to educate and inspire the Ummah (the Muslim community) and share the teachings of Islam with the masses.

At Dakwah Corner Bookstore Malaysia, we engage in dakwah activities by providing essential materials free of charge to Muslims, new converts, and non-Muslims alike. Furthermore, we actively support educational institutions, mosques, and school libraries by donating books and materials, thereby contributing to the dissemination of knowledge and understanding.

JUZ 1 HIZB 1 2. Surah Al-Baqarah

So far Allah described His favours to mankind which we can touch or feel i.e. music, property etc. Now Allah describes His favours to mankind like knowledge, honour etc. And (remember) when Allah said to the angels: "Indeed, I am going to make a vicary (Khalifa) in the earth." The angels said: "Will you make one who will spread mischief in it and shed blood?" while we glorify You with Your praises and sanctify You. Allah said: "Indeed, I know that which you don't know."

Allah taught Adam (as) the names of everything, then He presented those to the angels and said: "Tell me the names of these, if you are truthful."

The angels said: "Glory to you, we have no knowledge except what You have taught us. Indeed, You are the All-Knower, the All-Wise."

Allah said: "O Adam (as)! Tell them the names of these told the names of the things (with their characteristics), to the tell you that I, indeed, know the Unseen in the heavens and if you reveal and what you have been hiding?"

And (remember) when We said to the angels: "All of you (as)!" So they all prostrated except Satan, he refused and was of the disbelievers (of Allah).

And We said: "O Adam (as)! You and your wife reside from wherever you desire, and don't come near this tree or this wrong-doers."

So Satan caused to slip both of them concerning this (the enjoyable life there). And We said to them: "Get down! Enemies of each other. And you have to reside on the earth while."

So Adam (as) learnt some words from his Creator, and if indeed, Allah accepts (sincere) repentance, the Most Merciful

Explanatory Notes

- (1) Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "أفضل ما خلق الله من خلقه رجلان: رجل علمه الله ما لا يعلم ولا يعلم ما لا يعلم، فله حظ في الجنة لا ينفك عنه، ولا ينقص من أجره شيء." (The best reminder (أفضل ما خلق الله) is a man who knows what he does not know and the best supplication (أفضل ما خلق الله) is a man who knows what he does not know. (Tirmidhi 2421, Ibn Majah 3421).)
- (2) Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "Allah loves those believers who thank Him after meals." (Muslim).
- (3) Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "أنا رسول الله، وأنا أعلم ما لا يعلم ولا يعلم ما لا يعلم، فله حظ في الجنة لا ينفك عنه، ولا ينقص من أجره شيء." (I am a messenger of Allah, and I know what he does not know and I know what he does not know. (Muslim 221)).
- (4) In this translation of the Quran, the Creator means Allah Who creates, maintains, and sustains His creatures.
- (5) Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "لا تغفروا ما كنتم تعملون، ولا تتركوا ما كنتم تعملون، ولا تتركوا ما كنتم تعملون." (Do not turn your house, graveyard, verily Satan does not enter the house in which Surah-Al-Baqarah is recited." (Muslim-780)).
- (6) Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "about provisions of Paradise, one angel will announce: 'O Dwellers of Paradise, there is no more death. Every group will stay in the same condition forever.' (Bukhari-3244)."
- (7) Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "about provisions of Paradise, one angel will announce: 'O Dwellers of Paradise, there is no more death. Every group will stay in the same condition forever.' (Bukhari-3244)."
- (8) Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) said: "about provisions of Paradise, one angel will announce: 'O Dwellers of Paradise, there is no more death. Every group will stay in the same condition forever.' (Bukhari-3244)."

"Iqtidā' al-Sirat al-Mustaqīm" provides effective remedies for various religious, ethical, and behavioural challenges encountered by Muslims, and whose relevance extends beyond the time of its author, addresses many of the problems Muslims face today.

In this book, the author expounded upon the unequivocal evidence drawn from authentic sources and consensus, emphasising the incumbent duty upon every Muslim to maintain their distinctiveness from non-Muslims' beliefs and practices while cautioning against aligning with them. This emphasis was rooted in the benefits of adhering to this principle and the evident harms associated with forsaking it.

A groundbreaking, first-of-its-kind, compilation of authentic prophetic statements and Qur'anic verses that describe people, places and things using the terms of praise: "Good", "Better" and "Best" or their equivalents like "beloved", "more beloved" and "most beloved." The 182 Hadeeth and Quranic verses are alphabetically grouped according to their various subject matters.

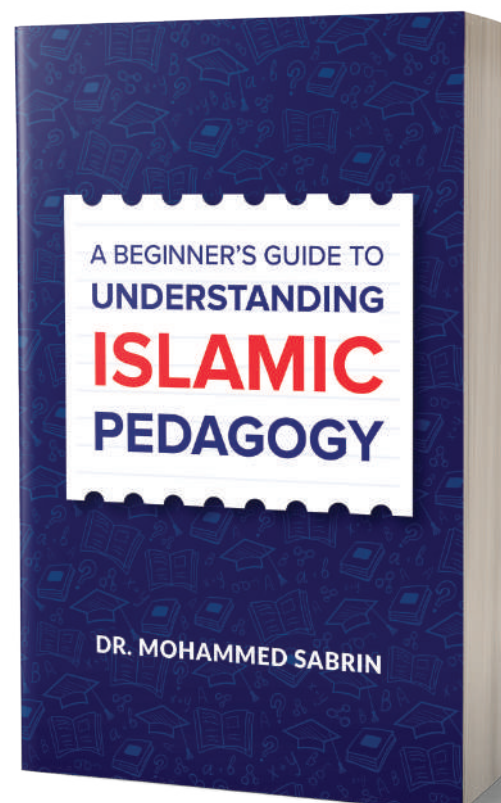

This truly unique work, originally compiled in the beginning of the 1990s, was aimed at enlightening English readers with issues which Islam considers to be the best and most pleasing to the Almighty God. Hence, readers can appreciate the higher objectives and goals of Islamic teachings, rites and rituals.

This book focuses on Islamic Pedagogy as it relates to two branches: developing caring student-teacher relationships and utilizing these relationships to apply a case-based learning approach where students learn how to implement knowledge directly from the educator and their peers. This pedagogy is then compared and contrasted with similar Western analogs due to the tremendous growth of Islamic schools, Islamic universities, and Islamic Education and Pedagogy courses and majors—within public universities and online Islamic universities—over the last five years.

Allah began His revelation with the command for us to read, and the first subject after that is knowledge of our Lord. Following that, we are commanded to arise and warn. Calling to Islam needs a skilled and qualified Da'i to convey wisely and with pleasant teaching. Despite the excellent commodity and enthusiasm, the workers of da'wah in the English-speaking world are deficient in knowledge of our Lord and have poor conduct. Knowledge and character development are linked together in Know Your Lord, the da'wah guide to the implementation of the names and attributes of Allah as the Salaf understood.

Mutakhir ini masalah kemurungan, kegelisahan, kesunyian sudah menjadi perkara biasa. Hidup dan perhubungan sesama insan diracuni perasaan hasad dengki, tamak haloba dan mencintai kebendaan yang melanda hati kita. Perkauman, peperangan, masyarakat melarat dek kerapuhan ekonomi: petanda besar bahawa kelemahan dari segi kerohanian kian mengheret kita ke lembah kehancuran. Maka, apakah jawapan bagi semua masalah ini? Kita perlukan kebangkitan rohani; kesembuhan kalbu yang mampu memulih semula alam ini. Mengenal semula iman kita—inilah yang diperlukan.

Where is your life heading to? Which trajectory is it on now? What is your purpose? All the wealth that you amassed, the investments you made, and the valuable possessions you have worked so hard to obtain. Where are these heading to? What do they mean when you depart from this world? What does "success" mean to you, at that juncture, when the angel of death comes to greet you?

Heavy questions, indeed. Questions so heavy, so uncomfortable to confront, that most of the mankind chooses to turn away from it altogether, to numb the pain of this existential crisis, preferring escapism to live in the convenience of comfort in the present.

For centuries, there have been numerous attacks on the hadith, its narrators, scholars, and compilations, especially on Imam al-Bukhārī and his Sahih. These attacks (in the past and present) are of various forms, and today have become widespread due to the advent of social media. Thus, we consider it obligatory and timely to produce a book that dispels these misconceptions and preserves the status of the hadith; particularly its most authentic collection - Sahih al-Bukhārī.

Commentary on the Forty Hadīth of Imām Al-Nawawī

Author: Dr. Jamal Ahmed Badi

Pages: 532

Hard Cover without Flap

The collection of the Forty Ahadith by Al-Imam Al-Nawawi has been known, accepted, and appreciated by Muslim scholars over the last seven centuries. Its significance lay in the fact that these selected forty-two Ahadith constitute Islam's most essential and fundamental concepts. And these prophetic gems also reflect the minimum level of knowledge needed for each and every Muslim. This work provides the reader with a simple and practical exegesis of each Hadith through the Qur'an, other Ahadith, and commentary of various classical scholars. This work also presents discussions on many contemporary issues: connecting the Prophetic advices relatable to real-life situations and practical implications in current times. This commentary aims to lead oneself to better understand and practice these indispensable Ahadith in their lives.

The Divine Reality Hamza Andreas Tzortzis provides a compelling case for the rational and spiritual foundations of Islam, whilst intelligently and compassionately deconstructing atheism. Join him on an existential, spiritual and rational journey that articulates powerful arguments for the existence of God, the Qur'an, the Prophethood of Muhammad and why we must know, love and worship God. He addresses academic and popular objections while showing how contemporary atheism is based on false assumptions about reality, which leads to incoherent answers to life's important questions.

ISBN: 978-967-5699-73-3

Pages: 500

Soft Cover with Flap

All of us are looking for love. We carry enough pain, frustration, and doubt in us to crush us. And only the comforting embrace of love can save us. We look around and see a world embroiled in so much greed, racism, inequality, and cynicism. We have become more suspicious of each other, more intolerant, and crueler. We need change. Many sing the praises of love and tout it as the answer. But they do not tell us what love is, what to love, and how to love it? Each imagines it and lives it differently. Which one is right? Which path should we follow?

From an Islamic vision, the human being is the center of universe. A quick review of the verses of the Glorious Quran and the Sunnah, statements, actions and traditions of Allah's Messenger ﷺ, reveals more than 90% of both revolve around the human being. There are very few verses in the Glorious Quran that address the improvement of the environment and the inhabitants and construction of the earth. But the majority of the verses of the Glorious Quran and the majority of the efforts done by the Prophet of Islam; Mohammad ﷺ throughout his blessed life revolve around the reformation of the human being. If the human being is reformed, then, the entire life would be reformed and fine.

Size: A4, A5 & B5

Al-Quran Al-Kareem Maqdis is a translation learning method of word-by-word Al-Quran with every word and sentence is colored differently, in Arabic and English. Every word in the Quran was translated literally so that the reader could understand the meaning of every single word. It needs to be remembered that not all literal translation represents the exact meaning of the word since the Quran uses varied Arabic language style and sometimes metaphor.

Accordingly, to understand the full or intended meaning of the word or the verse, Muhsin Khan's the Holy Quran Translation had been included in this edition. However, to comprehend more of the meaning of the Quran, reading the commentary of the Quran from trusted scholars would be necessary.

Tajweed Rules of the Quran

Author: Kareema Czerepinski

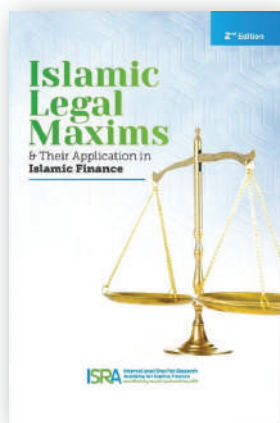

This set of 3 renowned books on learning the Tajweed rules of the Quran will help one to understand the tajweed rules and correct their recitation with the help of a teacher. In Sha Allah. It is also great Islamic schools & Quran teachers to teach their students.

This is a guide for studying tajweed. The student who uses this book is expected to have a basic grasp of Arabic before starting this course. The student should know all the Arabic letters and vowels and be able to read at an elementary level. This book is either for an English speaking student studying the Qura'an in an Arabic environment, but needing explanation of the Arabic terms in English, or a student studying the explanations of tajweed in English, but learning the basic concepts in throughout the book, since the science of tajweed is an Arabic science.
